

AECEA Job Board Disclaimer

For Employers:

The Association of Early Childhood Educators of Alberta (AECEA) offers a free-of-charge job posting service and we do not perform background checks on applicants, nor do we research the integrity of each organization or individual who posts a job with us.

Employers and job seekers are urged to perform due diligence when offering, applying for, or accepting private employment by requesting from each other references or any additional information needed to establish qualifications and credentials so as to ensure an overall fit between employer and job seeker.

We are not responsible for safety, wages, working conditions, or any other aspect of private employment. All hiring, scheduling, and compensation for job postings are handled directly between the applicant and the employer.

Use of the AECEA job posting system is subject to the terms and conditions set out below:

The AECEA reserves the right to screen all employer registrations and/or job posting submissions, and the right to decline posting employment opportunities.

Job postings must be complete with all requirements as directed. If insufficient information is provided, an employer registration and/or job posting may be declined. Additionally, all employers registered on the online system must have a valid email address and telephone number. Job postings of an inappropriate manner, including postings which have profane language, etc. will not be posted.

For Job Seekers:

The Association of Early Childhood Educators of Alberta (AECEA) offers a free-of-charge job posting service and we do not perform background checks on applicants, nor do we research the integrity of each organization or individual who posts a job with us.

Employers and job seekers are urged to perform due diligence when offering, applying for, or accepting private employment by requesting from each other references or any additional information needed to establish qualifications and credentials so as to ensure an overall fit between employer and job seeker.

We are not responsible for safety, wages, working conditions, or any other aspect of private employment. All hiring, scheduling, and compensation for job postings are handled directly between the applicant and the employer.

The AECEA neither screens employers nor endorses their employment opportunities, labour practices, products, or services. As data is subject to change at the discretion of each employer, information has not been verified and AECEA cannot be held responsible for any inconsistencies or errors.

AECEA does not warrant the legitimacy of any of the information in the posting, including the company and the position itself. It is the responsibility of each applicant to review and research each employment opportunity prior to applying.
